

Jones Point Park Improvements Project

Pardon Our Dust Public Meeting

Wednesday, December 8, 2010

7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Lee Center

Meeting Agenda

Project Purpose

- In accordance with Woodrow Wilson Bridge environmental documents, and in close collaboration with the National Park Service and the City of Alexandria, restore and improve the Jones Point Park

Meeting Objective

- To inform the public about the project, including:
 - Major project elements
 - Project phases
 - Community access

Jones Point Park Project Site Plan

Major Elements of the Project

Finishing Pier

Jones Point Lighthouse

Historic District of Columbia Cornerstone Vault

Fishing Pier & Floating Dock

Playground & Tot Lot

Comfort Station

Multi-use Recreation Areas

New Mount Vernon Trail Route

Interpretive Signs & Trail

New Access Road & Parking

Environmental

Major Elements – Finishing Pier

- New section of bulkhead
- Repair work to existing bulkhead

Major Elements – Jones Point Lighthouse

- Historic lighthouse renovation
- Historic shed rebuilding
- Rebuild stone sea wall

Major Elements – Historic District of Columbia Cornerstone Vault

- Protect in-place
- New walls
- New top slab with viewing window

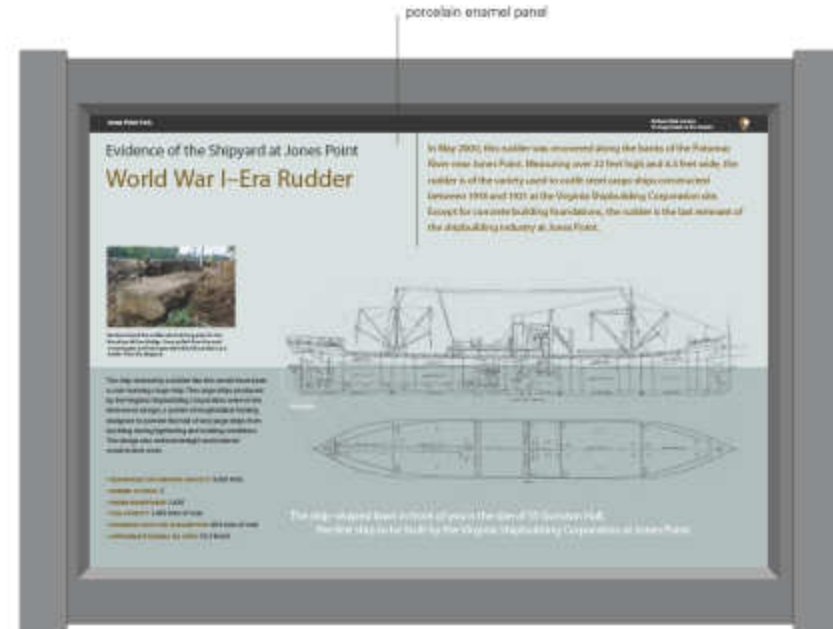

Major Elements – Fishing Pier & Floating Dock

- New fishing pier
- New floating dock for canoes and kayaks

Major Elements – Other

- Playground & Tot Lot
- Comfort Station
- Multi-use Recreation Areas
 - Playing Fields
 - Basketball Courts
- New Mount Vernon Trail Route
- Interpretive Signs & Trail
- New Access Road & Parking

Major Elements – Environmental

- Invasive species removal
- Reforestation
 - New native trees and shrubs
- Wetland creation and restoration
- Shoreline stabilization

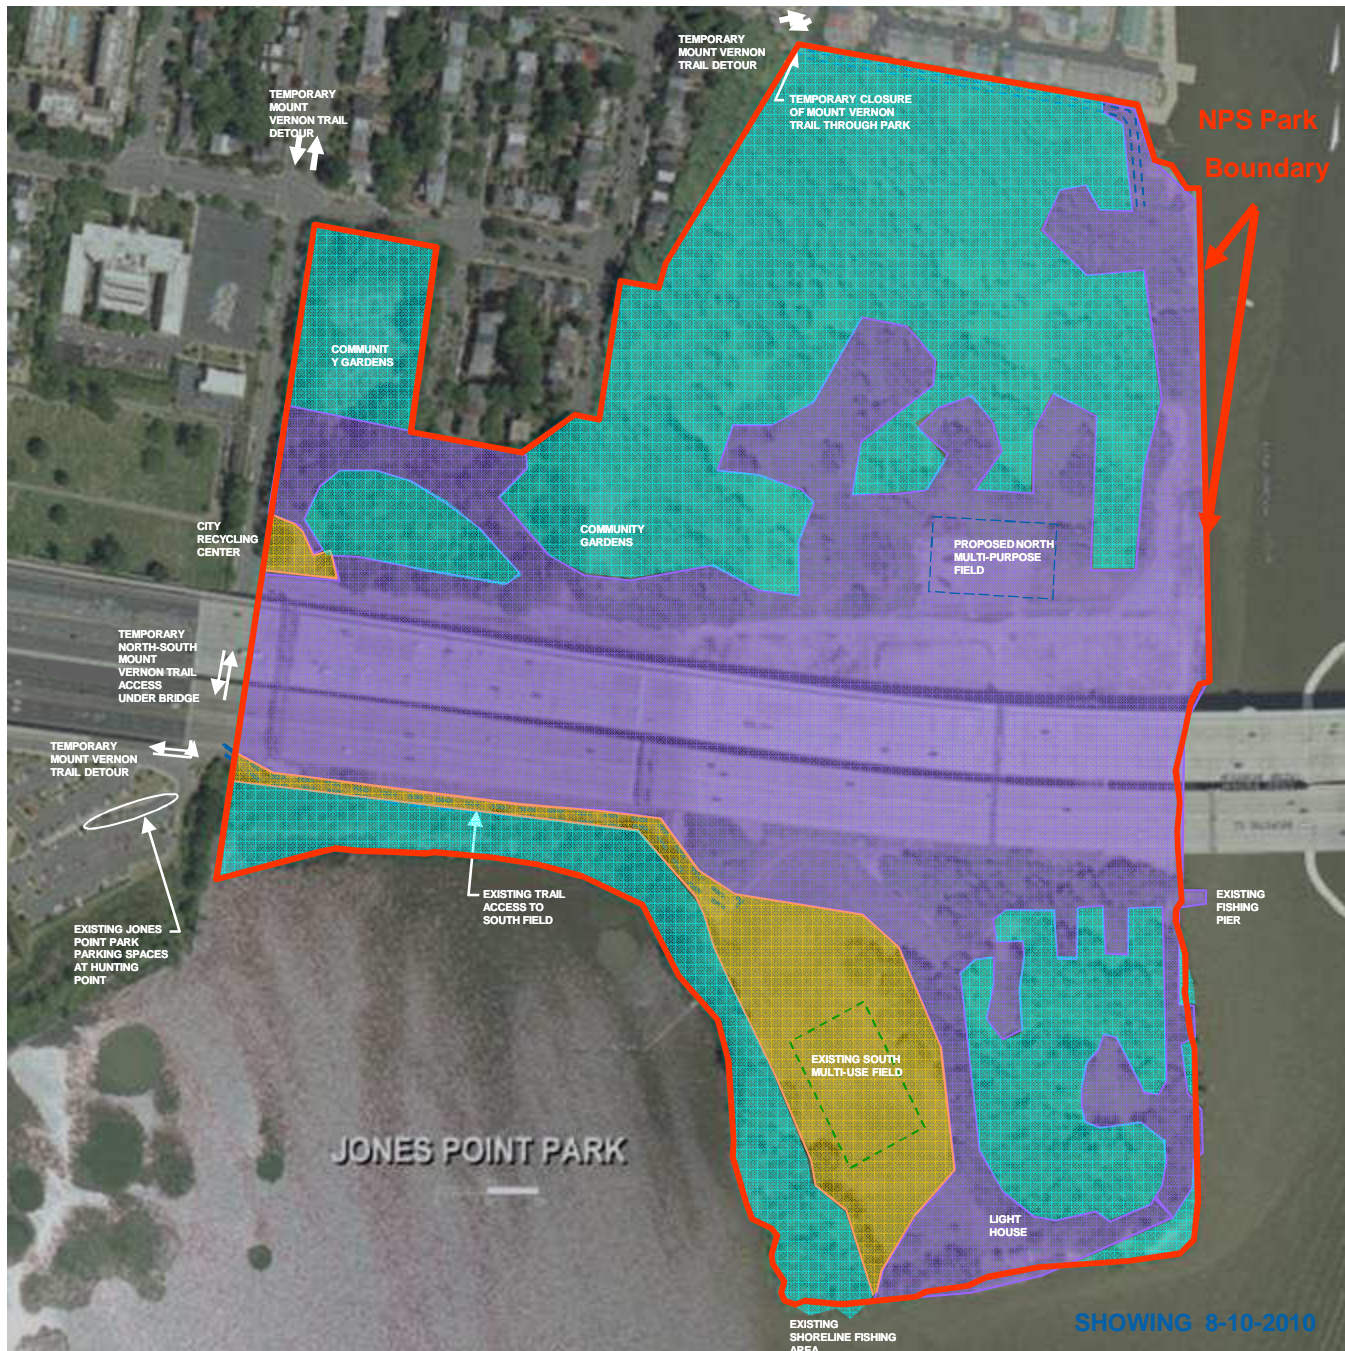

Native Wetland Plants

Invasive Phragmites

Jones Point Park

Project Phases

Community Access

Access maintained throughout construction to:

- St Mary's School
- St Mary's Cemetery
- Pedestrian / Bike Trails and Park Recreation Areas
- Community Gardens
- City of Alexandria Recycling Center
- City of Alexandria Fire and Police Department

Next Steps – First Six Weeks

- Detour Mount Vernon Trail
- Lay out Limit of Disturbance
- Clear for and install silt fence, tree fence, and screening fence
- Install turbidity curtain
- Excavate for and drive pile at Finishing Pier
- Begin Jones Point Lighthouse restoration work
- Begin removing invasive species
- Begin shoreline stabilization
- Standard work hours: 7:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m., Monday-Friday this winter